Mrs. Harry S. Jarrett of Waterbury returned home yesterday after spending a week visiting friends in this city.

In the probate court Saturday morning Mrs. N. Amelia Smith of Seymour was appointed administratrix on the estate of her husband, the late Edward er attention if mailed to J. P. Steven Smith. The estate is worth about $73,-

Frank B. Steele, editor; Isaac Stetson, advertising solicitor, and Herbert R. Kelt, reporter of the Bridgeport edition of the Waterbury Herald, were arrested Saturday morning by Detective Sergeants Reilly and Cowles at the Bridgeport office of the paper, on warrants issued by City Attorney Matthewman of this city, charging them with criminal libel. The three men were placed under bonds of $500 to appear in the city court this morning to answer the charges. Steele, the editor, said that Mr. Swift, the alleged proprietor, would be on hand at that time also to surrender himself. The bonds were made $250 in each case, and Charles Mann gave bonds and the three mer were released.

NEW BANK BUILDING.

Plans and specifications of the new building of the New Haven Savings bank will probably be ready for estimates this week. The building is to be an ornate structure, and a vast improvement over the old wooden build ing now occupying the site on Orange street. The building will have a gran ite base, surmounted to the height of twenty feet by cut Indiana limestone. Above the lime stone a gray Norman brick will be used. The building will have a steelframe and will be thoroughly fireproof. The roof will be flat with a large glass dome in the center. The cost will be in the neighborhood of

PROF. SCHWAB'S NEW HOME. Richie & Johnson, the builders, have just taken the contract to build Prof. John C. Schwab's handsome new residence on Prospect street. The George M. Grant company have been given the mason work, and they staked out the ground on Thursday. The site is one the finest lots on Prospect street, adjoining the Misses Twining's house near Edwards street.

AN IMPORTANT PURCHASE. Frederick L. Lehr, the Grand avenutailor, has purchased from A. Kelsey Jones and Lozelle Foote, the property at 401 State street. The deed was recorded in the town clerk's office Saturday afternoon. The price paid was about $20,000. A. Foote & Co's lease expires next December. Mr. Lehr may build a new building on the land next spring. The present building is a two story wooden affair.

FOR MR. FRANK J. SCHOLLHORN. Ground has been broken for a house to be built for Frank J. Schollhorn on west side of Edgewood avenue. On the first floor there will be a large sitting hall with a handsome staircase leading to the second floor. Also parlor, sitting room, dining room, kitchen and pantry; on the second floor there will be three chambers, besides a sewing room, the latter opening onto a over the front plazza. There will also be a turret projecting from the west front corner of the house The roof will be stained, and the orna mentations on the exterior of the house will be of composition. The house will be heated with hot water. The contract for the mason work has been let to Gorman, Wharton & Bowden, and the plumbing and heating to Clerkin & Mc-

THE ATLANTA EXPOSITION.

The Atlanta fair commissioners have shipped to Atlanta the exhibits. They include the woman's colonial and Revolutionary relics, the New Haven school exhibits and the Wesleyan exhibits.

The woman's exhibits are mostly new and come from all parts of the state. The New Haven school exhibit is from the board of education and consists of charts, books, kindergarten work, penmanship, music, manual training and photographs of the class of '95, Hillhouse High school. The university exhibits are mostly pictures of buildings and well known graduates. There was a carload shipped.

Mrs. Sara T. Kinney of this city started for Atlanta last Wednesday to make preliminary arrangements. Frank B. Weeks, the president of the board, Mrs. D. Ward Northrop of Middletown and J. H. Valli, the executive secretary, will go about the middle of this week. The party will take rooms at the Arragon hotel, and headquarters will be in the Administration building.

Tony Farrell's "Garry Owen" is booked for the opera house this evening. "Garry Owen," with Tony Farrell, the dever Irish comedian, has surrounded himself with a first class acting and singing company, carrying all his own scenery and mechanical effects. Mr Farrell having a pleasant tenor voice always arouses the enthusiasm of the audience. The comedy is pure and clean and full of fun and laughter.

The new canal from the Bartholomes Brothers' property into Paugh pond is now about completed, and will add thirty-five acres more of water shed, which, with the Austin property, makes 155 acres additional water shed to the supply of Paugh pond since the canals were started a year ago. The water in the pond falls about two inches a week but the supply is more than sufficient to keep the borough in water until the fall rains set in.
